The trial will be held in a unique setting. There will be only one ring for obedience and one ring for rally. The rings are separated by a wall, reducing distractions and making it a great place for new dogs to trial.

There will a list of nearby eating places or feel free to bring your lunch and a drink. There are no microwaves in the building so plan accordingly.

Stewards and volunteers are always an invaluable part of any trial. If you can help email the Chief Stewart, Brandy Dunaway at bowsandtiedogsgrooming@gmail.com

Why Enter On-Line?

1. There is no surcharge for online registration. We can offer the trials held at our training facility for a lower entry fee because we do not have to pay for a professional secretary. On-line entries 1. reduce the manual labor required by the club secretary to take the information from your hand-written form and type it our data base 2. Reduces transcription errors when the information is difficult to read 3. Instead of filling out multiple forms you can enter up to three dogs for each registration.

The site is set up to allow up to 3 dogs to be entered per owner. Per AKC requirements only one dog per form and a signature is required on each form stating you agree to AKC's rules and regulations found on the official AKC entry form on page 4 of the premium. When registering on-line, typing your name at the end of each dog's information acts as your signature.

If you have trouble with on-line entries, please email or call the secretary.
Jaye Pearce jaye29169@yahoo.com 803-446-3575

2. We understand some people prefer mailing in their payment and filling out the forms. If you prefer to mail in your entry and check the information will be typed into the data base and sent to you with an invoice for your approval. Once you approve the information is correct your check will be applied to the invoice and a receipt for payment will be emailed to you.
3. If you want to register on-line and mail us a check that is fine. Put Payment for online trial entry in the subject line.
